Please describe your experience in the space provided

I have regular Skype sessions with Herb where we discuss a variety of challenging issues I am facing and strategies I might use to address the issues. Herb also coaches me on developing my leadership profile through other avenues, such as publishing and presenting at conferences. Herb has also worked with my organization, on site, to develop our mission, vision, and core values.

What did you find most effective from this coaching and training that supported your leadership development?

Feedback on my leadership style and my approach to addressing specific issues has been very helpful.

How has the coaching and training led to be a more effective leader

Working with Herb has helped me become more reflective and I have developed my ability to not only see the bigger picture better, but also to be able to look at it from different angles affording more approaches to addressing issues and developing my institution.
