Unleashing Executive & Organizational Potential

I appreciate your willingness to describe your experience in the executive and leadership training that I provided to you and your organization. The information will be included in a marketing booklet that I will be using to expand my global footprint. My sincere gratitude for your support.

Herb Stevenson

Please describe your experience in the space provided

Worked with Herb for many years engaging him as a coach for my senior leadership team. In these processes, Herb served as an effective facilitator in sessions between me and individual senior leaders.

What did you find most effective from this coaching and training that supported your leadership development?

Herb has a great deal of experience in coaching senior leadership and has developed some of his own theories about effective leadership. He is able to present both the experiences and his theories on an individual basis and make it relevant to the person he is coaching.

How has the coaching and training led to be a more effective leader

Just as a professional athlete benefits greatly from a coach that is observing his/her performance, professional leaders also need fine tuning from an effective coaching resource. We do not always see our “blind spots” and a good coach can effectively help us become more aware of our style issues. All leaders face new leadership challenges in today’s dynamic environment and a leadership coach helps encourage and facilitate my continuing growth as a leader.
